Proposed Cycle Track

From Darley Abbey

To Duffield

- Track going
- Straight on
- Over
- Haslams Lane
- From
- Folly Road
- (Existing
- Cycle Route)

- Goes past OINK
- (Darley Abbey's
- Water Buffalo!)

- Divergence from Fishermen's track

- Towards the Fishing Lake

- Go round
- East Side

Towards Gate to Turf Farm

- Proceed along margin of field

To reach Farmer's road (at City Boundary)

- Continue beside River

- Past the Turf Fields (Note sign for path across the field)

Avoiding crossing his field

Continue via Farmers Road

- Through the Accommodation Tunnel under A38 and across

Ford Lane

(Old stub to disused level crossing)

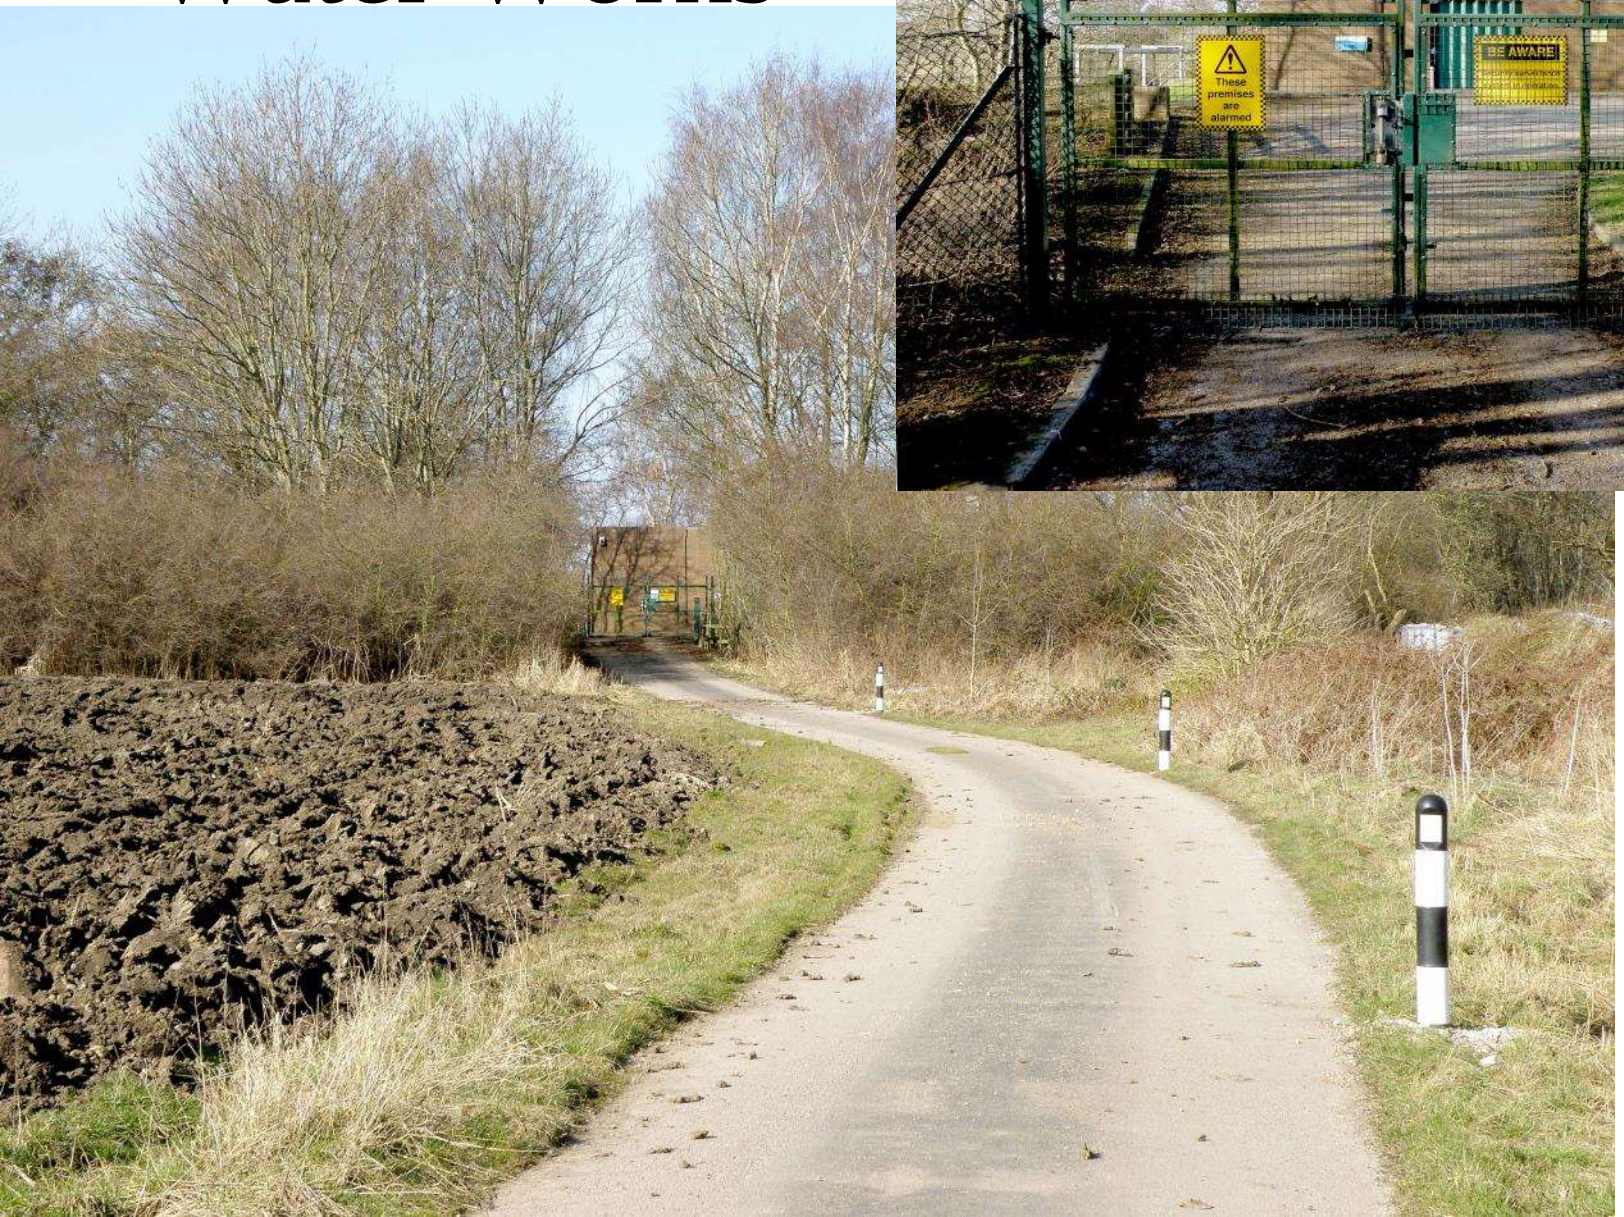

(Neither a through route nor a public road)

- Along Severn Trent’s Service Road

To the Water Works

- Along the (narrow) concession path

- To the field beyond the waterworks

- Along the field beside the railway

To the Water Gauge (I think)

- Burley Viaduct

- Plenty of Headroom

- Continuation along the Riverbank

- From Burley Viaduct along East Bank

- Farmer’s Bridge over River

- Turn right at End of Bridge

- Continuation along West bank to Duffield Church

- Past Peckwash Mill

- Towards Duffield Church

Use Path by Rail-way

Leave Path where it enters church yard

Join Existing path from Allestree

- To Church Carpark and Donald Hawley Way